

SUSAN SHAW

Susan trained at the Laines Theatre Arts College for 3 years. Studying in all aspects of musical theatre and dance.

After an extensive career spanning across 17 years she has TV credits including X factor, The Brit Awards, Stars in their Eyes, Dancing on Ice, Strictly come dancing, The World Music Awards and The Royal Variety Show. To name but a few.

Working alongside the industries elite stars such as Take That, Madonna, Olly Murrs, Room 5, Freemasons, James Morrison, Hound Dogs, Annie Lennox, Jessie J, One Direction and The Pet Shop Boys.

Her Career didn't just stop at TV and videos, it also stretched to screen and stage working for brands like Vogue, Ted Baker, La Senza, Wella and TIGI. Her screen credits include 'WE' (film), cutting it, If tomorrow never comes (film) and Blackpool.

Now turning her hand to choreography and staging she has been creatively involved in Take That's UK and European 'Progress Tour 2011, The Opening and Closing ceremony for the UK Olympics and the Paralympics closing ceremony.